Boston, Nov. 20, 1893.

My dear Mrs. Emerton:

If I am well and nothing prevents, it will give me great pleasure to speak to the Mother's Club of Cambridge on the Single Tax, on the 14th of next February. I shall take it as a favor if as the time draws near you will remind me of the engagement.

Very sincerely yours,

Wm. Lloyd Garrison

I shall read the same Paper which I read at the Round Table - "The Ethics of Taxation".
